

Dena Foundation Art Award

- International award created in 2001.
- Aimed at young artists that created a particularly relevant and socially significant work for the public space.
- The members of the Scientific Committee are presenting the artists in turn.
- The award consists in a grant, a trip and residency time in Paris at the Centre des Récollets and the publication of a book designed by the artist.

2009 - Renata Lucas (Brazil), presented by Carolyn Christov-Bakargiev, for Matemática rápida (Quick mathematics).

2007 - Ryan Gander (England), presented by Hans Ulrich Obrist, for Time Capsule.

2005 - Michael Sailstorfer (Germany), presented by Helmut Friedel, for Und sie bewegt sich doch!

2003 - Michael Rakowitz (USA), presented by Carolyn Christov-Bakargiev, for paraSITE.

2002 - Luca Vitone (Italy), presented by Roberto Pinto, for Pour des nouveaux désirs.

2001 - Fabien Verschaere (France), presented by Hans Ulrich Obrist, for Making to feed.

Dena Foundation Art Award

DENA FOUNDATION
FOR CONTEMPORARY ART

Ryan Gander (1976)

Renata Lucas (1971)

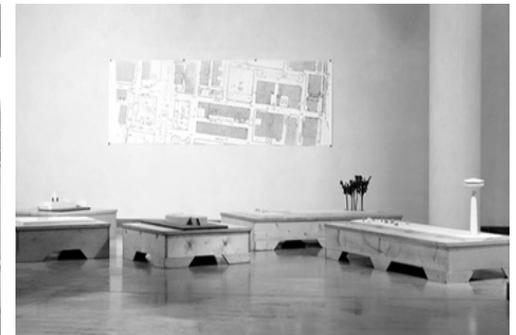

Michael Rakowitz (1973)

Michael Sailstorfer (1979)

Fabien Verschaere (1975)

Luca Vitone (1964)